

Self-publishing your children's story (picture books and middle grade)

- Cindy Gunderson

Interested in self-publishing a children's series but don't know where to start? This class will cover resources for hiring an illustrator or purchasing illustrations, working in Photoshop and Vellum to create your illustrated pages, formatting for KDP, and cover creation in Photoshop. We will also cover distribution options in paperback and hardcover through KDP and Ingram Spark, as well as some beginning marketing strategies!
